EDUCATION VIA RADIO

Salve Regina for the fifth year, in cooperation with WADK is presenting Education Via Radio. This year's topic is Newport Structures. The College and WADK recognize that Newport's heritage is so rich and varied that it needs to be continuously researched and re-presented to both those who are already deeply aware of it and to those who are becoming cognizant of it for the first time. It is hoped that this third series of programs will serve to further enrich the lives of all those who participate, either as presenters or listeners.

These series have been prepared by a committee of members of the Salve Regina College Community. It is jointly chaired by Sister Therese Antone, Vice - President/Institutional Advancement and Dr. Robert J. McKenna, Professor of History and Politics and Director of College and Community Relations. Other members of the committee are Sister Ann Nelson, Professor of History and Politics and Chairman of the History and Politics Department; Sister Esther Whalen; Director of College Information; Brother Gene Lappin, Professor of English and Chairman of the English Department and Dr. Lois Eveleth, Professor of History/American Studies. The committee has been assisted by a large number of the faculty and students of the College and other experts from the Community. The helpful consultation of Judith A. Boss, author of Newport, A Pictorial History and Dr. Daniel Snyder, Director of the Newport Historical Society is gratefully acknowledged.

The program has been scheduled for every other Wednesday morning from 9:00 - 10:00 on WADK and began on September 29, 1982. This has been made possible through the generous cooperation of WADK and especially Freddie Fernandez, on whose regularly scheduled program these presentations are made.

Next week's program: October 13- Edwin W. Connelly - Old Burying Grounds
